Video Tips

- Don't be afraid to annotate your videos to focus the audience's attention
- Keep your videos short - videos longer than 15 minutes will lose the audience
  - Have more than 1 video on a topic if necessary
- Buy a headset to have clear audio

Video Tips

- Give yourself time - creating videos is time consuming and can require a lot of editing
  - You'll be surprised at how often you say, "um...ah...uh…"

Tutorials for Blackboard Collaborate

Blackboard Collaborate, formerly known as Elluminate, is a virtual classroom used for synchronous sessions, and recordings, among other things. It is free to use, and is compatible with both Macs and PCs.

Introduction to Blackboard Collaborate

New to Blackboard Collaborate? This video, created by BrainShark, is a great place to start. It will show you how to get started with web conferencing, whether you are the host or the participant of the web conference. The video is approximately 7 minutes and 20 seconds long.

Troubleshooting Blackboard Collaborate (PC)

Having trouble logging in to a Blackboard Collaborate Session? This tutorial will show you the step-by-step process of how to log in to a session, an overview of Blackboard Collaborate's layout, checking Java for updates, and clearing the Java cache.

Troubleshooting Blackboard Collaborate (Mac)

Having trouble logging in to a Blackboard Collaborate Session? This tutorial will show you the step-by-step process of how to log in to a session, an overview of Blackboard Collaborate's layout, checking Java for updates, and clearing the Java cache.
